The True Hero

Beemer is a simple miracle and so is his wife Tenequa. They fell in toxic waste as little kids and turned into Super Monkeys. They are on team justice in the B.C. age with dinosaurs. They help little innocent baby dinosaurs. They hate T-Rexes, there is a big T-Rex named Diablo who had a daughter named Gloria. They protect dinosaurs from T-Rexes. They have every super power available. One day they were flying in the sky, they saw Gloria in the distance. They knew there was trouble.

They got a report from the Longnecks that there was one of their young that got lost on a fieldtrip. They said "were on it!" They saw the baby Long neck Fabio, it looked very scared. It ran all the way up a tree. The T-Rex was about ten yards away, still approaching. Super monkeys to the rescue! From what they could see Fabio was in a tree and the T-Rex is trying to eat him.

Later they find out the T-Rex wants to help. They ask it for its name. She said it was Gloria, with a shocked look on their faces. Together "you're Gloria!" "Yea why so shocked, I didn't do something wrong did I?" "No, but you're Diablo's daughter?" "Yea, but I ran away from home so can I live here?" "Yes you can." "Thanks you're a true hero for saving Fabio." "You're welcome."
